

Luke 13.10-17

Jesus is in the synagogue teaching. He stops teaching and responds to the needs of one woman.

Jesus notices the woman and responds to her needs.
She rises up and is free.

Jesus Love Write

Write two pages of the woman's diary.

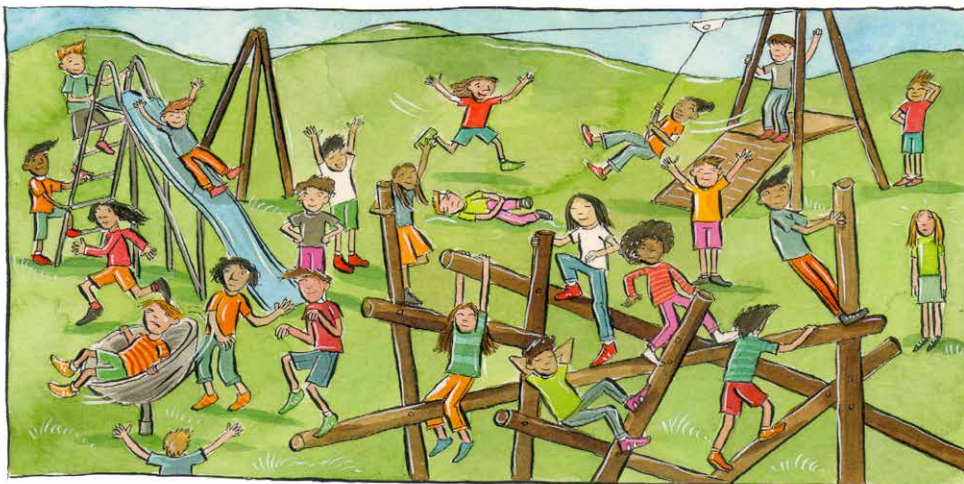

On this page, write about the day before she meets Jesus. What has been difficult for her, what has she not been able to do?

On this second page, write about the day after she has met Jesus. What has the woman been able to do? What has she seen? Have people treated her differently?

?? ? ? ? ? Puzzle

Jesus is good at seeing everyone. Can you find three children needing your help in this picture?

Draw

The woman Jesus healed needed him to help her. Can you find the letters that spell help in the jumble of scribble and colour them in so that they stand out more clearly?

